

ARTIST BIO & EXHIBITION INFO :

Jorge De Lara is a South Florida artist listed by the Florida Department of Cultural Affairs and The Miami Dade Department of Cultural Affairs as well as many private arts organizations and galleries worldwide.

Bronx, New York born, the Miami raised "native" is one of the areas top artist.

Works in the private collections of:

Orlando "El Duque" Hernandez, 3 time World Champion NY Yankees;

Jackie Johnson, formerly of WSVN 7;

Luis Castillo, 2003 World Champion Florida Marlins;

Randy McMichael, Miami Dolphins Rookie 2002.

Many more not listed due to requested privacy.

Artwork donated for auctions by these organizations:

Habitat for Humanity / Sony Ericsson Tennis Championship Silent Auction

South Florida Minority Business Council SFMBC - Gala Event

Junior Marlins Baseball Association - Served as Youth coach & TV Show host.

The Florida Marlins Community Foundation - Dinner on the Diamond

Benefits to the Daily Bread Food Bank and Camilus House

Miami Dolphins Foundation - Charity Events

American Red Cross Hurricane Relief

EXHIBITIONS OR SHOWS INCLUDE

- Viernes Culturales - Since 1999
- Urgency Emerging Emergency • Art Basel Satellite Event • Administrator
- Gallerie Luministe - Thomas Kinkade Gallery February 2002 to August 2002
- West Perrine Cultural Heritage Festival •
- Miami Dolphins Dol-Fanfest • Sun Life Stadium •
- Miami Dolphins Pre-Season Game • Sun Life Stadium •
- Roger Dean Stadium • Spring Training 2004 • Florida Marlins & St. Louis Cardinals
- Miami Dolphins Dol-Fanfest • Pro Player Stadium
- Baseball on Canvas TV- The Board of Directors and staff of Miami-Dade Cable Public Access Television produce 6 Television Shows featuring Artwork
- WORKS! Presented by the University of Miami • James L. Knight International Center at the Downtown Miami Hyatt Regency Hotel.

Follow me on : www.twitter.com/baseballpainter • Also on Facebook • eBooks Available at www.offthebookshelf.com